

Take a Day Away: Trips

Take a Day Away!

Come spend a delightful day on a trip coordinated by the Park District! These fun excursions are open to all adults of all ages, including those “in your prime” — 55 and up. They’re a great way to meet new people, enjoy a bit of culture, and see sights you’ve never seen before.

POLICIES & CANCELLATIONS

Please notify the Park District in advance if any special ADA or dietary accommodations are needed on trips. If your trip requires a pre-purchase, we can only issue a refund if you are able to find your own replacement or if we have a waiting list. Contact Kent Hengels at 847-381-0687 if you must cancel your reservation.

My Fair Lady at Marriott Lincolnshire Theatre

Wednesday, February 10

Ages: Adult (18 years & up)

Join us for lunch at Kings Wharf and then off to enjoy My Fair Lady, a timeless classic. The endearing and enchanting Lerner and Loewe musical romance follows the tale of Eliza Doolittle, a cockney flower girl in 1910 London, who falls under the spell of Professor Henry Higgins. Higgins makes a bet with crony Colonel Pickering that he can transform Eliza and pass her off as a duchess. With one of the most memorable and recognizable scores in the Broadway genre, you will delight in such beloved songs as “I Could Have Danced All Night,” “Get Me to the Church on Time,” and “The Rain in Spain.” There is only one word to describe the great American musical – it’s “lovely!” Lunch consists of Wisconsin Winter Salad, entrée choice of Oven Roasted Turkey Breast with Gravy or Poached Filet of Salmon, both served with mashed potatoes and fresh vegetables. (Min/Max: 6/13).

Fee: $67 per person

Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous

Wednesday, March 3

Ages: Adult (18 years & up)

Robin Leach would be impressed by the elegant lifestyles that have been lived by Chicagoans of means, both past and present! BACOA and the Barrington Park District invite you to spend a day exploring how these privileged people lived, worked, and played. The day starts with a visit to The Chicago Board of Trade and The Chicago Mercantile Exchange, the world's first and oldest trading floor. We'll then visit the Grand Victorian Church, built in 1870. Kendall Culinary College is a great spot for lunch, a cooking demonstration, and a tour of the facility. Then we'll head to the Field Museum to explore "The Nature of Diamonds" exhibit. Through ancient manuscripts, compelling multimedia and evocative exhibit, explore the many facets of diamonds and be dazzled by breathtaking pieces. Truly an exhibit filled with "BLING." Transportation is via motor coach bus. (Min/Max: 6/12).
